No funds were released during the year 1994-95 as the Utilisation Certificates for the previous years were not furnished by the State Government.

The allocation for the Govemment of Gujarat under the Scheme for the current year, i.e., 1998-99, is Rs. 150.180 lakhs. Out of this, the first instalment of Rs. 75.09 lakhs has already been re-teased.

Corruption In police force

*614. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the MinUter of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether attention of Government has been drawn to the news-item captioned "Corruption seeps into top levels of police" as repotted in "The Hindustan Times", dated the 17th June, 1998;

(b) if so, whether corruption at the top level of police have increased alarmingly and the innocent persons are harassed by them;

(c) whether to check the corruption at high level in the police, Government have formulated any scheme; and

(d) if so. the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) There is no evidence to justify the conclusion that there is any wide-spread corruption at the top levels of Delhi Police.

(c) and (d) The machinery to check and contain corruption in public services, including police, through prevention, surveillance & detection and punitive deterrent action already exists. The Central Vigilance Commission, the Central Bureau of Investigation and the internal vigilance set-ups in the Ministrie&<De-partments are the agencies involved in this task. The Prevention of Corruption Act duly supported by the Conduct Rules governing the service conditions of public servants also act as deterrents against corruption. The drive against corruption in public services is a continuing process ia the Government's resolve to provide a clean administration.
